News and information covering Swalcliffe and Tadmarton

*A tribute to the very special lady
'Daisy Sadler' of Lower Tadmarton*

In this issue we say goodbye to one of the most well known characters to have lived amongst us.

Daisy Sadler, well known to so many people, sadly passed away on Friday 3rd of October. Daisy, formerly known as Sue Halkyard, was born in Bowness-on-Windermere in 1944. She married Josh Sadler and the couple shared a passion for amateur classic car racing. They moved to Tadmarton in 1997.

Daisy ran Sydney's Exploditions, providing a carriage service for special occasions. Many a friend and neighbour had the pleasure of hiring Daisy and her heavy horses. My first sight of them - carrying a full wagon load of hearty, well fuelled gentlemen back from the Hooky Beer Festival to the Stags Head. And, I'm sure each of them behaved impeccably with Daisy at the helm!

Daisy was a very thoughtful carer for those that needed it in the community as well as a tireless supporter of charities. In 2018, she drove her waggon on a 1,000-mile journey to The Kelpies near Edinburgh. The five-month trip not only raised £27,000 for the Brain Tumour Charity but saw Daisy win Horse and Hound magazine's 'Inspiration of the Year' award in 2018.

Nick Bailey, a close friend, said: "Whether it was driving her 1929 Austin 7, Chumley Carruthers – a wedding present from Josh in 1973 – or her magnificent gypsy wagon, Daisy was both a very popular and prominent member of the Oxfordshire community. Such an incredible, kind and loving lady who stoically continued fighting her illness until the end."

From those who knew her and indeed those of us who just knew of her, she will be deeply missed.

A note from the Editor

We made it to the final issue of The Link for 2025!

Agreeing to take on The Link around this time last year, it has been somewhat more work than I anticipated at the beginning, but keeping The Link going for our 2 villages has been a bi-monthly brain exercise that is an absolute pleasure!

The advertising spaces are fuller than ever due to Jenny reaching out to local businesses who we thank for their continued support - we do hope both contributors and readers find them useful!

The efforts from all of our local distributors this year has been outstanding, getting your copies to you at the beginning of each month so you don't miss any events, especially the early ones! Thank you Maggie for receiving, splitting and delivering out to your team!

And lastly, a big thankyou to our sponsors who continue to support us each year for the inclusion of events and activities that truly make both of our villages very special places to live indeed!

For the rest of this year, which isn't a lot, I will be decking the halls, overloading the electricity spend with fairy lights and wearing sequins on a daily basis! I completely LOVE CHRISTMAS!

Preparations are already underway for the first issue of The Link 2026 which will cover January & February. Please email your copy into us by 15th December.

All that remains now is to wish you and yours a Very Merry Christmas and a Happy Healthy intro to the New Year!

Jenny, Maggie and myself.

CANCER SUPPORT

Held at Tadmarton
Village Hall

Mandy and Sue would like to thank everyone for their support in making the Macmillan coffee morning such a success. We raised an amazing £1,186 which will go towards helping support people living with cancer.

We hope to see you again next year!

A big thank you to the many volunteers and all those bought tickets for the hugely successful Swalcliffe Harvest Supper held at the Village Hall. The celebration offered an opportunity to give thanks for the harvest of food that we grow and eat, whilst bringing the community together for fun, laughter and dancing! Those that came enjoyed a welcome drink, a delicious three-course traditional harvest supper and the excitement of a live auction.

All followed by a live DJ to finish off a wonderful evening!

CHAIR EXERCISE

THURSDAYS 10 am to 10.45am

At Tadmarton Village Hall

For those who struggle with mobility but would still like to exercise this is the class for you.

Sessions will be free of charge but if you are able to make a donation of £2.50, that would be much appreciated.

Chair Fitness is a type of physical activity that involves using a chair to exercise while seated. It can be a low-impact, gentle, and challenging workout that can help improve strength, mobility, and fitness levels. Chair fitness can be beneficial for people with mobility or balance issues, chronic pain, or who are recovering from an injury.

Chair fitness can include a variety of exercises, such as:

- Aerobic: To improve heart health
- Strength based: To build muscle
- Yoga inspired: To stretch the body

Some Benefits of Chair Fitness include:

- Improving joint function
- Reducing pain
- Increasing blood flow
- Keeping joints active and lubricated
- Reducing the risk of falls
- Making everyday tasks and activities feel easier and more comfortable

Get moving and keep mobile from a seated position. There is also an option to stand.

Also suitable for some wheelchair bound people.

Seasons Greetings, one and all!

It is with the utmost pleasure and a dash of aristocratic amusement that I reflect upon the past months. Months filled with introductions and observations most delightful, as I have had the rare privilege of immersing myself in the peculiarities of our two rather distinguished villages.

As you are no doubt aware, I have recently taken up residence in this locale, and whilst I am presently occupied with the rather tedious affairs of my late wife's so-called 'close' relatives - those tiresome individuals who now lay claim to Lady Whispermere's long lost, and I assure you, most mythical 'fortune' (more on that scandalous saga in due course) - I have found myself even more engrossed in the delicate art of discerning which invitations to accept or decline. One must, after all maintain standards when navigating the labyrinth of local hospitality.

The inter-village politics are, I must say, a source of endless entertainment. The cliques, the curtain twitching (though, curiously, nets seem to be out of fashion here - shutters or brazenly open curtains the order of the day), and the ever present gossip! It is all quite delicious and I daresay I shall thrive in such an environment!

I have, at the very least managed to grace one high society gathering with my presence, thus preserving my sanity. Moreover, I have been introduced to the true spirit of village community at a truly magnificent evening feasting from the land that God's own green country provides! Along of course with the fayre our distinguished farmers of these here parts provided.

Now, I must declare that the festive season finds me, as ever in high demand. Naturally I have engagements in far flung, sun drenched locales. Yet for the days of celebration themselves I shall graciously bestow upon my own residence here in North Oxfordshire accompanied by a select coterie of my most recently esteemed acquaintances from our 2 distinguished communities.

Now, if you will excuse me, I must return to the lawyers and those ever persistent, long-lost relatives.

With warmest regards and every expectation that your own festivities will be conducted with appropriate elegance and decorum.

Here at Sibford Gower Endowed Primary School, we love being out in nature, whether we are out and about in the school grounds or at home. Mrs Williams, HLTA and one of our Forest School Leads, has signed us up for the Woodland Trust's Green Tree Schools Award Scheme. We are doing all sorts of things across the course of the school year as we work towards this. Some of the children have brought in their own visual responses to being out in the woods during the half-term holiday. Here are a few examples.

Later on in the term, we will be holding 'Dress a Tree Day' to honour the mighty oak tree in our school playground and are planning a Tree Party for our families up on the Big Field in the summer months. We will also be planting a new oak tree up on the Big Field as part of our 400 birthday celebrations this year and in honour of our longest-standing school governor, Fred Inns, who tells us he can remember the huge playground oak tree being planted when he was a boy at school here at school.

Our pupil School Council, the WOMBATS, are also our school Eco-Council. This year, they have chosen the theme of 'Protect our Local Wildlife' for the environmental focus across the school and will be launching their poster competition in a special WOMBAT assembly.

The public Firework & Bonfire Extravaganza was brilliantly organised and run by our wonderful PTA and friends of the PTA. As always, it was lovely to welcome so many of our families, local people, ex-pupils & parents into the grounds for this fabulous annual event.

We have all sorts of exciting things planned for the last half-term of 2025, including a special Spots & Stripes Art Day, Road Safety Week activities, Nursery Rhyme Day and a number of inter-school sporting activities.

We are very much looking forward to being able to meet up as a school community at Holy Trinity Church in Sibford for our Christmas Carol concert, once all their exciting renovations have been completed.

To find out more about our wonderful, welcoming village school and the things that are going on in each class, please take some time to visit our school website at

Tadmarton- St Nicholas Church

We held our Harvest Festival service on Sunday 12th October. The church was beautifully decorated and a good congregation sang the well-known harvest hymns with gusto. This was followed by a Harvest Supper in the village hall, a bring and share meal which was a wonderful spread. Thanks go to everyone who helped to decorate the church or provided food, thanks also to Louise Hillman who organised the event and to Mike Hillman for finishing the evening with the traditional auction of produce. A total of £675 was raised from the church collection and supper which was given to Polly to help the needy in Banbury. A very special thank you must go to Edith and Carrie from the Lampet Arms who placed a bottle of wine on each table, a very generous gift.

The Remembrance service took place on Sunday 9th November lead by Rev.Graeme Arthur. The names of all those men from Tadmarton who gave their lives in the first and second world wars were read out. A cross bearing their name and a photo of each was placed on the memorial.

Tadmartons traditional carol service is on December 16th a 7pm with lessons and carols followed by refreshments. Come and sing your favourite carols. We would love to see you.

Our Christmas Day service is at 10am, Please join us if you can. On a lighter note we had visitors from Peru looking round our church. What a small world. We thought of asking if they knew Paddington Bear!

We would like to wish you all a Very Happy Chrstitmas and a
Peaceful New Year

Help there where you need it!

Ever wished for a Mary Poppins Miracle:
Look no further!

When life seems to be overwhelming with a long list of things to do, your helping hand is just on your doorstep.

From decluttering your office, to looking after your animals, doing your shopping, or driving you to an appointment, building that flatpack or spring cleaning your kitchen. The list is endless

I am highly versatile and price the job, not the hours. That way you will know where you stand right from the start.

Don't see the service you need, give me a call or send me an email.
Until you ask you don't know, you will be pleasantly surprised..
