News and information covering Tadmarton and Swalcliffe

It has not been easy to fill our front page since pictures are short in forth coming. Either we have no budding photographers or artists in our villages or they are all very shy.

It is a great picture, and she has been a godsend taking our beautiful but crazy GSP Mira for her daily walks whilst I was abroad.

Thank you Sarah you were a saviour during some tough times.

Notes from the Editor

FIRST OF ALL I WOULD LIKE TO WISH EVERYONE A GREAT NEW YEAR.

To me it signifies a new beginning. A clean slate on which we can doodle, and make new mistakes from which we can learn and which shape us into whom we become as the days, weeks and months pass by.

Not one for: if only, and what ifs, but more one for....got that t-shirt and happy to wear it.

If you have made any new years resolutions and you manage to stick to them, let me know and I will give you a shout out in our next issue.

Got any good photos, artist impressions, or photos of any art you would like to see on the front page of the Link, DON'T be shy.

Do you know anybody who is starting up a new business and is looking for advertising space? We are currently looking for new advertisers.

We have very competitive rates, you help to run a local service, especially important for those who are not online , and you make yourself and your business known to 370 households at the same time. Sounds like a win-win to me.

An "up to date" stagecoach bus service can be found on page 24 Please note that this might be subject to change and for live information I would suggest checking with stagecoach direct on: https://www.stagecoachbus.com/timetables or 0345 241 8000.

This new year please help us to make The link even more informative; Are you new to the village, or would you like to introduce a newborn? Maybe you got a new pet or exciting hobby you would like to shout about? Have you got a big birthday or anniversary to celebrate? Drop me a line -Email or handwritten equally accepted, or give me a call (See page 3 for contact details) so that I can include it in a future issue.

I wonder if anybody knows when the first ever Link came out. It would be nice to celebrate its anniversary, dive into the archive and bring back some memories for the older generations. Got the answer share it with me.

Whatever you do , don't waste it.

The Autumn term is finishing on a really positive note here at Sibford Gower Endowed Primary School. We were delighted to be able to share our positive Ofsted report with parents and, although this Ofsted experience was very positive, teachers were pleased to get the inspection completed early in the school year so that we can really focus on all the things that matter in the daily life of the school. We retained our judgement of 'Good' for overall effectiveness.

The excellent work of school staff and the character of our children was recognised in grades of 'Outstanding' for both Personal Development and Behaviour and Attitudes. These are some of the observations that the Lead Inspector made in his final report. "Pupils feel valued and cared for. They listen intently during lessons and are incredibly respectful towards staff and each other.....Behaviour is exceptional."

"Pupils feel safe. One pupil, whose comments summed up the views of many, said, 'You can really be yourself here, and no one will judge you.""

"Staff are unwavering in their determination to maintain high expectations so that pupils achieve positive outcomes....Pupils interests and the school's ethos are kept at the heart of decision-making. All staff say that they feel proud to work at the school."

"Parents are overwhelmingly supportive of the school many shared the view of one parent, who said, 'I feel incredibly lucky that my children can attend such a welcoming, inclusive and safe environment every day.'

Children across the school love to be involved in Art projects. This year, each child in Willow and Oak classes has made a small bird decoration to go on our tree for the Christmas tree festival in Sibford Church. Our completed 'Winter Tree' looks beautiful. Children worked collaboratively to create large 'Op-art' images, which we then used to construct a mobile for the Old School library.

"From little acorns... mighty oaks do grow" To find outmore about our wonderful, welcoming village school and the things that are going on in each class, please take some time to visit our school website at http://www.sibford-gower.oxon.sch.uk/

Final episode from Primmy's holiday.

Primmy's Holiday (4) "The finale"

"Whoops!!!" Fell at the last fence on my last day. I'm well and truly in the dung this time. Following "The Great Escape" where Uncle Tim saw me race off down the drive into the horizon, towards something called the main rd, uncle went a very odd ashen grey colour but of course I eventually came back when I decided too! So no harm done really and I wasn't even going to log it up, just part of a dog's life.

Well my dears it being auntie Gil's b'day I put the family on the shake at my usual 6.15 am (uncle Tim was coming for me first to let auntie enjoy a b'day lie in), however she being so gentle and kind she took me down to let me out to do my ablutions. Well the bloody cheek of it, there was their resident hedgehog returning from his nocturnal activities; well you can imagine I wasn't having any of that!

I raced up the garden and he had just made his winter house (built by uncle Tim), after much effort unseen from the house I was able to rip the roof off only to have my fun spoiled by Tim being sent up to investigate, I'm now back indoors and in disgrace (it's not fair). Perhaps he saved me from getting a very prickled nose, who knows?

I've overheard them talking and they both have said that lovely though I undoubtedly am, having me staying has been like sitting on a keg of gunpowder smoking a couple of fags "I haven't a clue what that means"; but I haven't got good vibes, pity really as I've really enjoyed my stay here and there's talk of the getting a CAT can you imagine, however I did hear mutterings of mini breaks and emergencies, so here's hoping.

Lot's of love from Primmy in the Cotswolds.

St Nicholas Church

So it is now 2024. Where did that year go?

Our carol Service was held on Tuesday 12th December and was a lovely evening, where our singing was bolstered by the Benefice Choir (Thank you). Thanks to Maggie Stevens for playing the organ when not running at 100%.

The mulled wine and nibbles served after were scrumptious so thanks to all those who made them. Special thanks to Shirley Wackrill, Jennifer Brown, Louise Hillman and anyone else who provided such treats. It was also lovely to hear the Bells so thanks to Lindsey Smith for organising.

The Festival Fiesta was a great success using both the Church and the Village Hall, thanks to the Village Hall Committee who did most of the heavy lifting. Who knew there was such a thing as non-alcoholic mulled wine!

The advert for a new vicar will have been running through December and the closing date for applicants is 14th January. Applicants are then shortlisted, assuming we have more than one! Interviews take place on 31st January and 1 February. We look forward to seeing who is called to lead us.

In the meantime, thanks to John Tattersall who organises and leads many of our services as well as the 'retired' clergy who fill in the blanks.

Just a reminder that we do Zoom our 11.00am services on a Sunday for those not able to make it. This is also available for those who want to see what we get up to! To join use Meeting ID: 851 3086 9357 Passcode: 305275.

Happy New Year to all Chris Dean

All in a days "shoppin"

Dear Sirs,

It started off fine, parked my trusty stead in the long stay by Castle Quay and put a couple of hours on the ticket. Being a rambler I wandered off and got lost in my "shoppin" ending up on the gateway retail park. I was oblivious of time when I suddenly realized I'd only got 20 minutes left to return.

I rushed out of M&S and saw a bus, on I leapt, saved! Unfortunately buses go one of two ways and I found myself speeding out 4 of town to Chacombe; fortunately a kind gentleman saw my plight and assured me if I got off in the village the returning bus would arrive in minutes, he was right and being reassured by another good Samaritan I sped to town alighting by the station as the bridge was blocked by a major incident.

More drama how to cross the railway? Coincidentally another Good Samaritan in the guise of "Pete the post" our village postie rescued me, "go through the station" from Merton St. All was well and I was not arrested. My husband has said he'll be more careful in letting me out again, so many many thanks to all my heroes.

CODEWORDS are like crossword puzzles - but have no clues! Instead. every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number, the same number representing the same letter throughout the puzzle. All you have to do is decide which letter is represented by which number! To start you off, we reveal the codes for two or three letters. When you've filled in these letters throughout the puzzle, you'll have enough clues to start guessing words and discovering other letters.

LAND WANTED!!

Do you have a parcel of land (A minimum of 3 acres) that is not doing anything?

Would you be happy to donate it to Tadmarton Village to become a community asset?

I am looking to a landowner with land in Tadmarton which would be accessible from the road or public footpath.

The wish is to create a memorial arboretum for the local residents at the same time functioning as a wildlife sanctuary and place of peace and serenity.

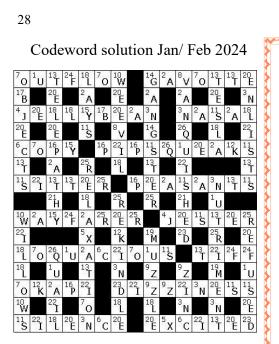

To create this haven has been a dream of mine and I am willing to put in the effort.

Is this something that sounds like something you can help with? I would love to hear from you.

Thank you so much for reading and considering.

Much Love, Mery Wolke
