

Tadmarton Village Hall Trust

Privacy Policy

What information do we collect about you?

Tadmarton Village Hall Trust collects information when you request a booking of the hall. The Trust will not share any of your information, and in particular, will not use your information for marketing purposes.

How we will use this information?

Tadmarton Village Hall Trust will use this information to communicate with you about your booking, to maintain our records, and to provide the you with the services requested.

Access to your information and correction

You have the right to request a copy of the information that we hold about you and we want to make sure that the information we hold is accurate and up to date. If you would like a copy of this please contact:

Helen Yeomans, Secretary, Tadmarton Village Hall Trust

Email: helen@barncroftbook-keeping.co.uk

You may ask us to correct or remove information which you think is inaccurate at any time.